User Stories:

- As a student, I would love to find all the courses the university offers, easily and get all the information about admission prosses, expenses and other necessities.

- As an admin I want a system where I can easily update any information regarding admission so that potential students can get all the information as soon as the university publishes it.

- As a visitor, I want be able to contact the university directly via the website so that I don't have to use my email and wait for a reply.

- As a student, I want to ask question and communicate with the university, so that I can get a clear idea about my related quires.

- As an admin I want to be able to see all the quires from the visitors and answer them as soon as possible.

- As an admin I want to be able to update news about the university so that visitors and students may know what is happening in the university.

- As a visitor, I want a news section on the website so that I can get an idea about the universities inside and plans for the students.

- As a visitor, I want an about page so that I can know about the university in one page.

- As a student, it would be great to have a section for alumni of the university so that I can get to know our alumni and expand my network in the industry.

- As an admin, I want to be able to upload and update research works and publish them through our website so that visitors may know on which research we are working on.

- As a visitor, I want to know about the research works of the students so that I can get an idea of what to expect from the students of the university.

- As a student I want know what colleges the university is offering so that I can get a clear idea of what subject to choose from or whether the department I wanted to be admitted in is being offered or not.

- As the marketing manager of the university, I want to have a specific section where we will only publish the success stories of the previous students so that the visitors will get a good impression about our university. First impression matters the most.